

Massimiliano Iuliano

Massimiliano Iuliano holds a Master of Science in Economics degree and brings 20 years of experience in the corporate finance, internal audit, corporate governance, investor relations and international sports sectors. After five years as Senior Internal Auditor at Coop Switzerland with a focus on the areas of internal control system, risk management and compliance, he moved to Highlight Communications AG, a Swiss based company listed on the German stock exchange as Head Internal Audit. During the 12 years with the media group, which focuses on sports, events, entertainment and film, he moved from internal audit to various executive functions within the group in the areas of corporate finance, corporate governance, investor relations and event/sports management. Most recently he was CFO and COO of the internationally acting World Boxing Super Series AG before he left the company to start his own business as a financial/corporate advisor and sports consultant. He currently holds various board memberships in companies, which are specialized in advising companies in the areas of corporate affairs, corporate finance, corporate governance, private equity and business development in the areas of sports, event and entertainment.