Press Release

Youngtimers AG Strengthens the Team, Expands Cross-Border M&A Practice

March 31, 2023, Basel, – the board of directors of Youngtimers AG (“Company”), a Swiss-listed investment firm (YTME: SWX) approved its intention for further expansion of the Company’s investment business by strengthening its existing cross-border M&A business to specifically facilitate investment flows between investors from Greater China and European businesses, including active use of Swiss capital markets infrastructure for IPO and private debt and equity deals to be backed with Asian capital.

The Company has approved the appointment of Mr. Andy Liu, a Zurich based entrepreneur and financier with over 20 years’ experience to lead its M&A and advisory business as of April 1, 2023, in the capacity of the Company’s Chief Investment Officer. In the past Mr. Liu led on a series of strategic investments from a Hong-Kong listed company in a wide portfolio of luxury and financial services assets in Switzerland and Liechtenstein.

“Youngtimers AG is betting big on the continued relevance of Switzerland as one of the primary gateways for Greater China’s companies’ investment and access to European economy and capital markets and we are delighted to welcome Mr. Liu to lead Youngtimers investment and M&A advisory activity in this space”, commented Norman Hansen, Chairman of the Board of Youngtimers AG.

“I am excited to combine my business resources and access with the well-established execution and investment management capabilities of Youngtimers AG to build the best-in-class investment support and management platform for Chinese capital and businesses seeking for closer ties with Europe”, commented by Mr. Liu.
